The demand for redemption must be made either in the General Meeting before the adoption of the resolution or by delivering a notification to that effect to the Company by email to the address agm@multitude.com so that the notification is received by the Company no later than on 21 March 2024 before the adoption of the resolution. This form of notification is provided for the shareholders' convenience, and it is not necessary to use this form that is provided on the Company's website.

Please send this form duly signed and completed to the Company by email to the address agm@multitude.com, in which case this form must be received latest on 21 March 2024 before the adoption of the resolution at the General Meeting.

The shareholder demanding redemption must vote against the resolution proposal. Please see the following page for information regarding redemption proceedings.

REDEMPTION PROCEEDINGS

In a transfer of registered office, a shareholder of the transferring company has a statutory right to require at the Extraordinary General Meeting resolving on the transfer of registered office that all his/her/its shares are redeemed. Such a request shall be made before the resolution on the transfer of registered office is made.

Redemption proceedings are in outline as follows:

1. The shareholder wishing to have his/her/its shares redeemed must have the shares entered into a Finnish book-entry account by the record date of the General Meeting, i.e., 11 March 2024. Only shares that have been recorded on the shareholder's book-entry account by the record date of the General Meeting can be redeemed. Accordingly, nominee-registered shares cannot be redeemed unless such shares will, by the record date of the General Meeting, be transferred to a book-entry account under the beneficiary's name. Only shares held on the record date of the General Meeting and on the date of the General Meeting can be redeemed.
2. The shareholder must register for the General Meeting, request for redemption and vote against the transfer resolution either by voting in advance or by participating in the General meeting virtually in person or by proxy. Voting for the transfer or abstaining from voting does not give the right to demand redemption.
3. The redemption price equals to the fair price of the share at the time preceding the resolution on the transfer. In the determination of the redemption price, the depreciating effect that the transfer may have on the price of the Company's shares shall not be taken into account.
4. If the Company and the shareholder having demanded redemption fail to agree on the redemption right or the terms and conditions applicable to the redemption, the shareholder may submit the matter to arbitration within one month of the General Meeting and demand that the Company be obliged to redeem the shares the shareholder holds. The redemption price must be paid by the Company within one month from the arbitral award gaining legal force, however not before the transfer has been registered.

A shareholder who no longer wishes to keep the Company's shares, can always sell his/her/its shares on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (Frankfurter Wertpapierbörse).
